

KATIE CREED, DANCER

After returning from Israel in 2017, Katie Creed settled in Washington, D.C., and began dancing full time with I.C. Movement Project and Deviated Theatre. A Maryland girl with a global spirit, Katie has studied at Duke Ellington School of the Arts, CityDance Conservatory at Strathmore Music Center, Adelphi University in New York, University of Maryland Baltimore County, and the Jerusalem Academy of Music and Dance in Jerusalem, Israel. She has danced with and worked for a variety of companies with a wide range of styles, including Culture Shock D.C., CityDance Ensemble, I.C. Movement Project, Word Dance Theatre, and Deviated Theatre. Most recently, Katie was the lead in Deviated Theatre's premier of BEYOND.

Katie has a passion for travel and draws inspiration from artistic traditions of the world. In 2013, she traveled to India with Adelphi University to study dance and culture. Since then, Katie has continued her study of dance in France, Canada, Colorado, and Israel. While traveling, Katie has performed at a variety of venues, including the Kennedy Center, the American College Dance Association, the Joyce Theatre in NYC, and Suzanne Delal in Tel Aviv.

While Katie can't deny her wanderlust, she is excited to plant roots down in D.C. and be given the opportunity to dance with I.C. Movement Project once again.

