

Katie Creed

At twenty-three years old, Katie Creed has already worked with multiple dance companies in the Washington, D.C. area. Originally from Chevy Chase, Maryland, Katie has studied at Duke Ellington School of the Arts, City Dance Conservatory, Adelphi University in New York where she received a talent scholarship, and University of Maryland Baltimore County. She has danced with and worked for a variety of companies with a variety of styles, such as Hip Hop with Culture Shock D.C., Contemporary, Ballet, and Jazz with City Dance Ensemble, and Isadora Duncan technique with Word Dance Theatre.

After graduating high school in 2011, Katie was bit by the travel bug. In 2013, she traveled to India with Adelphi University to study dance and culture. Since India, Katie has traveled to France, Canada, Colorado, and Israel.

While she loves to choreograph and create, Katie's real passion is in performing. She's been fortunate enough to travel, attended conferences, perform at a wide variety of venues including the Kennedy Center, and for the past two years in a row she's been asked to perform at the American College Dance Association.

In 2016, Katie graduated from UMBC with a BA in dance and will move to Israel to continue her dance studies at the Jerusalem Academy of Music and Dance in the fall.